SUPPORT FOR FARMER PRODUCER ORGANISATIONS THROUGH TRAINING PROGRAMMES

CIKS has been recognised as a Resource Support Agency (RSA) by NABARD for the Producer Organisation Promoting Institutions (POPIs) supported under the produce fund for the setting up and support for FPOs (Farmer Producer Organisations) in various parts of Tamil Nadu. As part of this commitment, CIKS had completed a set of three five day training programmes from July to September 2016. In all about 25 POPIs from various parts of Tamil Nadu involved in the promotion of 170 FPOs participated. All the three training programmes were held in Chennai and were the combination of field visits, talks, discussions and practical exercises on various aspects of FPOs. These training programmes provided an exposure to the participants on various topics including,

- Origin of the Producer Companies and their institutional forms – comparisons with Cooperatives, Private Limited Companies etc.
- Process of registration and issues.
- Producer Companies Act, Legal aspects, Compliances with the Ministry of Corporate Affairs.
- Strategic planning and good practices.
- Business plan for Producer Companies and generation of proposals for banks
- Field visit to an operating Producer Company and discussions with members of the Board, CEO and staff of the Company.
- Schemes for the support of Producer Companies from various sources, discussions with officials of NABARD, Banks and the State Government.
- Possibilities for networking and linkages.
- Other topics including – Agricultural insurance, Marketing, Food safety and Standards etc.
